

KANE BROWN TALKING POINTS

May 2024

- Nearly 11.5 Billion Career On-Demand Streams
- Brown just released his new song “Miles On It” with fellow collaborator Marshmello
  - The track was the #1 most added record at both the country and pop format marking the two as the first male artist to achieve this feat and first time for a collaboration
    - The only other two to complete this achievement was Beyonce and Taylor Swift
- Brown is the 7th country artist to achieve Diamond status with his song “Heaven”
- Currently on his 2024 In the Air Tour which will hit select stadiums across the country
- Received multiple nominations across all award shows including ACM, CMA, People’s Choice, iHeart Country, Billboard, AMA and more
  - Current ACM Entertainer of the year nominee
- Kane’s last single, “I Can Feel It” hit #1 at country radio and marked Kane’s 11th No. 1 at the format
- 23 RIAA certified titles
- Recently collaborated with Regional Mexican artist Carin León's on their song, “The One (Pero Como No)”
- Was the recipient of the 2024 CRS Artist Humanitarian Award
- Was the first black artist to headline Boston’s Fenway Park; Also Headlined StageCoach Music Festival
- Recently Headlined C2C 2024
- Received the ACM International Award at the ACM Honors last year
- Brown was the first ever male country solo artist to perform on the MTV Video Music Awards
- Appeared in in the Call of Duty: Modern Warfare II “Squad Up Trailer. The trailer also featured Nicki Minaj, Lil Baby, Pete Davidson and more
- Was named Boys & Girls Club Person of the Year in 2022
- New music slated for later this year